Correcting previous information, the following observations were made in LUCKENWALDE (N 53/Z 70):

1. All troops detained up to the evening of 12 October 1949 (i.e. troops with 30 to 35 tanks, several trucks and some passenger cars) left for the JUETERBOG (N 52/E 69) artillery range. Some tanks carried tree trunks and spare track shoes. Six passenger cars each carried one 20-mm AA gun.
2. All tank and self-propelled artillery units which were detained in LUCKENWALDE later left the freight station heading north or northwest via BERKENBRUECK (N 53/Z 60) - HENNICKEN-DORF (N 53/Z 60) - DOBBRIKOW (N 53/Z 60). The street from the freight station to the town border was patrolled by traffic police wearing red arm bands with the letter "P". Direction signboards reading "O-1" were nailed to trees along the march routes and at crossroads. The marching units bivouacked in the woods near the march route during the night.

Comment:

the component units of a tank division (6th Gds Tank Div (Cadre)) which were detained in LUCKENWALDE between 12 and 15 October 1949 left toward the JUETERBOG troop training grounds. * that most of the troops left LUCKENWALDE heading northwest. It is assumed that some of the troops who were to participate in the large-scale Third Gds Mecz Army (Cadre) maneuvers assembled in the LUCKENWALDE-TREBBIN-BEELITZ area and, from there, joined the maneuvers which started in mid-October 1949. These maneuvers presumably extended as far as the WERDER-MARKENDORF area.
